

The Honorable Gene Dicks

represents the Town of Middletown on the Park

Advisory Commission. He is a lifelong resident of Frederick County.

For more than 45 years he has lived in Middletown itself. He has served two terms as mayor of Middletown. He was first elected and served 1958–62; he was elected to a second term beginning in 2004. He has served on the Frederick County Industrial Development Association Board since its beginnings in the 1970s. He was an employee of the U.S. Department of Agriculture until his retirement. He lives in Middletown and owns Old Forge Farm, also known as Zane's Furnace, which is listed on the National Register of Historic Places.
